2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was taking preventive measures in connection with a political murder in that area, some anonymous call was received that some persons are planning to execute robbery at Indian Overseas Bank, Natham Road, Dindigul District. The defacto complainant suspected these accused and on seeing the police, they fled away from the place. The respondent seized 4 knives, a nylon rope and chilli powder packets from the first accused. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that on the ground that only based upon the confession of the co-accused, this petitioner has been implicated. Apart from that, it is stated that the area, where the occurrence has been taken place, some political murder has been taken place. It is a usual practice of the police to foist false FIR in that area.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner is involved in a similar case in Crime No.1065 of 2019 for the offences under Section 399 and 408 of IPC and in an another one assault case also the petitioner was involved. It is stated that on the date of the anonymous call, the first accused was secured and others were escaped.

5. Eventhough, it is stated that the petitioner is not involved in this crime, considering the bad antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant relief to the petitioner.
