3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the earlier bail application that was filed by this petitioner was dismissed by the concerned Special Court, by the order dated 27.07.2023, considering the gravity of offence. Further, the trial has commenced. P.W.1 was examined in chief and without examining the victim girls, this petition has been filed by this petitioner.

5. Even though the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner wants to engage a counsel to defend the case before the concerned Special Court, it is not a reasonable ground to entertain this petition.

6. Considering the facts and circumstance of this case and also considering the gravity of offence, I find no reason to entertain this petition at this stage. Hence, this petition deserves dismissal and accordingly dismissed.
