anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to political dispute, the petitioners along with the other accused attacked the defacto complainant and also damaged his vehicle. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that in respect of the very same occurrence, FIR in Crime No.163 of 2023 has been registered against the defacto complainant and others and also submitted that the learned Principal and District Sessions Judge, Pudukkottai had granted anticipatory bail to the Accused Nos. 1 and 2 in Cr.M.P.No.2502 of 2023 dated 01.08.2023.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been treated as out patient. He further submitted that it is a case in counter case and also submitted that the petitioners damaged the defacto complainant's vehicle, its worth about Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only).

5. Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and also of the fact
