ORDER

The counsel who filed the writ petition have become Government law officer.

2. The petitioner has not made any alternative arrangement. I went through the contents of the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition.

3. It is seen that the petitioner has already filed a civil suit against the sixth respondent. The private dispute between the petitioner and the sixth respondent is being given different colour altogether. The petitioner has to pursue his remedy against the sixth respondent in the pending suit. If the sixth respondent had committed encroachment on any public property or Government poramboke, the revenue authorities are bound to take action by adhering to due process of law. This writ petition stands disposed of accordingly. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
