ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the first respondent rejecting the petitioner's claim as belated.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that since the petitioner's applications were not being considered by the official, he had moved this Court by way of the writ petitions in W.P(MD) Nos. 14059 of 2010, 13066 of 2010 and 13082 of 2010 and this Court by order dated 30.11.2010 and 26.10.2010 had directed the respondent to consider the petitioner's application after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and other concerned persons. He would further submit that the present impugned order has been passed clearly in violation of the direction issued by this Court in the above said writ petitions.

3. As rightly contended by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the impugned order does not disclose of an opportunity of hearing, as no notice of hearing was also given to the petitioner before passing the order impugned in the writ petition.

4. This, in my view, is not only violation of the direction issued by this Court but also the violation of principles of natural justice and hence, the impugned order is liable to be interfered with.

5. In fine, this writ petition is allowed. The order impugned in the writ petition is set aside. The first respondent is directed to conduct an enquiry and after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and any other concerned persons, pass appropriate orders on merits and in accordance with law within a period of twelve (12) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
