The petitioners with a grievance that certain rectifications are required in their patta, which has been issued by the second respondent has filed an application before the Tahsildar, Usilampatti Taluk and filed this writ petition for a Mandamus, to direct the respondents to rectify the mistake crept in the patta issued in favour of these petitioners.

2.The case of the petitioners is that they are having a land to an extent of 70 cents in Nattamangalam Village, Usilampatti Taluk, Madurai by way of a registered sale deed, dated 10.08.1992. However, the patta has been granted by the revenue officials only for 64 cents. The petitioners claim that they are having a valid document to substantiate that they are entitled for 70 cents of land.

3.Mr.M.Sarangan, learned Additional Government Pleader, who takes notice for the respondents submits that the patta has been issued to the petitioners to an extent of 64 cents, as per the available revenue records.
