2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are illegally involved in transportation of sand from the pond belongs to the Village. When the same was questioned by one Suresh Kaspar, who belongs to the above said Village, the petitioners threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that investigation is still pending. The third petitioner has stated that there was agreement between himself and first, second and fourth accused for taking sand. He was not aware to what extend the above sand would be taken by the above said persons. Subsequent to the filing of the petition first accused was arrested and released on bail. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that only with the help of this petitioners, the above said sand has been taken by the fourth accused.

5. Considering the limited role played by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are
