The petitioners/Accused, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b) and 307 of I.P.C., in Crime No.338 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's brother is a cousin of the first accused. Over purchasing of some properties, enmity and trouble has been arisen between them. On 02.06.2023 at about 3.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant was standing in front of his house, her brother was abused, criminally intimidated and was assaulted with wooden log by this petitioner. Similarly, the defacto complainant was also assaulted and sustained injuries. Both were taken to the hospital. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Because of the enmity exist between the petitioner and the defacto complainant's party over purchase of land, occurrence said to have taken place. There is no enmity between them except the land issue.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submitted that injured have been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and the injured persons have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
