2. The petitioner herein has filed an application before the Trial Court. It appears that the respondent herein has given a power of attorney in favour of one Nalla Nayagam. The petitioner herein apprehended that the respondent, namely, K.Thamilarasi was not at all alive. Therefore, for proper adjudication of the matter, he filed an application for the appearance of the landlord. The same was objected on the ground that the very application has been filed to prolong the litigation.

3. However, the learned Trial Judge after gone into the merits of the case and also the certificate given by the Malaysian Government as to the presence of the K.Thamilarasi, has allowed the application with a direction to the petitioner to pay Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Forty Thousand only) towards the travel expenses of K.Thamilarasi.

4. Aggrieved with the order, the petitioner has come up with the instant civil revision petition.

5. At this juncture, the leaned counsel for the respondent has submitted the status report of the e-Courts, wherein, the very same R.C.A has been dismissed as abated.
