2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, the petitioners along with the other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that for the very same occurrence, FIR in Crime No.541 of 2023 was registered against the defacto complainant and others and also submitted that this Court has granted anticipatory bail to the co-accused on 10.08.2023. The petitioners are in custody from 01.08.2023. Hence, prays for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor (Crl.Side) submitted that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that it is a case in counter case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the grant of anticipatory bail to the co-accused and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with stringent conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners ordered to be released on bail, on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
