2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.08.2023 at about 7.30 a.m., due to previous motive between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, when the first petitioner went along the defacto complainant's house, the same was questioned by the defacto complainant. Therefore, the first petitioner along with the second petitioner, abused the defacto complainant with filthy words, attacked her with wooden log and iron rod and caused injuries. Thereafter criminally threatened her with dire consequences. The defacto complainant was later admitted in the hospital for treatment. Hence the present complaint came to be registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocents, they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that trouble arose between the neighbours over previous motive. No previous case has been registered against the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and the fact that a wordy quarrel arose between the neighbours due to previous motive, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Orathanadu, Thanjavur District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders. The petitioners shall comply with the condition stipulated under Section 438 of Cr.P.C., scrupulously.

7. The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail will stand dismissed.
