2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that on 19.07.2023 at about 6.30 a.m., her younger daughter namely Abirami returned to house from Chennai. At about 10.20 a.m., her elder daughter informed her over phone that Abirami sent a text message stating that she will commit suicide. So the defacto complainant went to her house at about 11.00 a.m., at that time, the house door was locked by inside, after that, with help of others, she broke open the lock and saw that her younger daughter Abirami died by holding a knife in her right hand. Actually, there was love affair between the deceased Abirami and one Muges, which was opposed by the defacto complainant, so the said Abirami refused to talk with said Muges, but the said Muges continuously torched her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person. The specific allegation against the petitioner is that he had thrown away the small bag entrusted to him by accused no.2, which contains the blood stained cloths of first accused.

4. Perusal of record shows that the first accused and the deceased have fallen in love with each other. At one point of time, the said Abirami started break up the relationship, frustrated over which, the first accused has often indulged in fight with the deceased Abirami. On 19.07.2023 at about 11.00 a.m., the first accused by using a
