2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner has not committed any offence and he has been falsely implicated in the case. Already co-accused were released on bail and anticipatory bail. Already this petitioner filed two applications and the same were dismissed. The petitioner is suffering from stroke and he is taking treatment and investigation was almost completed by the police. The FIR were registered on 24.01.2023 and on 26.01.2023. Already main accused was arrested and released on bail. Therefore, the petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail.

3.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent filed detailed counter stating that there is suicide note as against the petitioner and the offences are grave in nature. This petitioner is close associate of A1 and close relative of A5 who are main accused in this case. In this case, more than Rs.50 lakhs is involved and so far, no money was recovered from anybody and investigation is still pending. Some of the accused are yet to be arrested. This petitioner is also directly involved in the offence. Already the petitioner has filed two anticipatory bail petitions and the same were dismissed and there is no change of circumstances. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner
