ORDER

None appears for the writ petitioner. It is stated by the learned counsel for the third respondent that the petitioner is no more.

2.I went through the averments set out in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition. The property originally belonged to one Ammaiappan. Ammaiappan is none other than the father of the writ petitioner. Ammaiappan died way back in the year 1964. It is stated that after his demise, in the revenue record, the names of his sons were entered. The learned counsel for the third respondent also states that the third respondent has been in possession even since. If the petitioner is having any grievance, she could have gone before the jurisdictional Civil Court for appropriate relief. The revenue authority cannot grant relief in such cases. I make it clear that I have only held that the relief has to be obtained only before the jurisdictional Civil Court.

3. Granting such liberty to the legal heirs of the writ petitioner, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
