2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous dispute, the petitioners along with the other accused persons, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with bottles and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that for the very same occurrence, FIR in Crime No.152 of 2023 was registered against the defacto complainant and others.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that it is a case in counter case.

5. Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and also of the fact that it is a case in counter and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, however, with stringent conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Virudhunagar, and on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
