2. Since this Civil Revision Petition filed by the petitioner is only for speedy disposal of the suit, notice for the respondent is not required and is therefore dispensed with.

3. The suit in O.S.No.13 of 2020 was filed by the respondent/plaintiff for permanent injunction and for declaration of title. The learned counsel for the petitioner/defendant would submit that the respondent/plaintiff is not ready for conducting the trial and the suit is pending for more than 2 years without any progress. It is submitted that the Trial Court is adjourning the case periodically without any reason which causes great hardship to the petitioner/defendant.

4. It is further submitted that the respondent/plaintiff knowing fully the suit proceedings is seeking adjournments continuously and taking advantage of the delay in suit proceedings, the respondent/plaintiff occupied the one portion of the petitioner's/defendant's property and filed the suit with ulterior motive and prevent the petitioner/defendant to enter into the suit property. Therefore, the petitioner/defendant was constrained to approach this Court for speedy disposal of the suit
