The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 323 of IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.69 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with hands and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that due to previous enmity, the present complaint has been given by the defacto complainant.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, however, with stringent conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of
