2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the Superintendent of Police stating that in the year of 2016, he had availed vehicle loan with one private financial institution namely 'Equitas' and received a sum of Rs.2,50,000/- as a loan for his vehicle bearing registration No.TN 75 D 5259, four wheeler. He repaid only two installments i.e., Rs.20,000/-. Due to non payment of pending installments the petitioner who was working as an Assistant Sales Manager had taken away his vehicle in order to sell the same and settle the loan amount. But, he did not settle the loan amount to the said company. Cheated him. The said complaint was forwarded to the respondent police.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that on the basis of the complaint given by one Mathusoothanan, enquiry was undertaken. During the course of enquiry, this petitioner has appeared and given statement that he will take steps to get NOC from concerned company. On that basis the above said enquiry was closed.

4.Now this petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail regarding the above said closed enquiry, on the ground that he was relieved from the above said Equities
