2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity the petitioners herein waylaid the defacto complainant abused him, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences, hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the petitioners are innocent and a false case has been foisted against them. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, hence he seek anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that accused persons said to have assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and also threatened with dire consequences. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, however he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the fact that injured has been discharged from the hospital and also considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Keeranur, Pudukottai District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police on every Monday at 10.00 am., for a period of four weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[b] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[c] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
