2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police has foisted a false case against him and he has not committed any offence as alleged in the First Information Report. He would further submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant with iron rod and he is still taking treatment in the hospital, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner

4. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the fact that though the injured still taking treatment he sustained only simple injuries and considering the nature of offence and considering that except section 506(ii) of IPC all other offences are bailable in nature this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Muthukulathur, Ramanthapuram District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum
