The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(B), 25 of NDPS Act, in Crime No.200 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

police party the accused persons attempted to run away, the respondent police nabbed and enquired the accused persons and found in possession of 6 Kgs of ganja.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against this petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner was not available in the occurrence place and at that time he was very much available in Thanjavur.

4. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondent police submitted that the first accused has given a confession statement that he and this petitioner only purchased the said Ganja from Andra Pradesh and sold the same in Tamil Nadu. He would further submit that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner in this case is very much necessary.

5. This Court earlier perused the CD file, which shows that based on the confession statement of the co-accused, the involvement of the petitioner came to light. It is also seen that the petitioner along with the other accused has purchased the Ganja from Andra Pradesh and sold the same in Tamil Nadu.

6. Considering the facts and circumstance of this case and gravity of the offence, feeling that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much essential, this Court dismissed the earlier petition filed by the petitioner on 17.07.2023.
