The petitioner/A5 who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.07.2023 for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 324, 307, 506(2) of IPC and Section 25(1-A) of Arms Act in Crime No.486 of 2023 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity all the accused persons unlawfully assembled together with deadly weapons jointly waylaid the defacto complainant attacked him and caused injuries. Further they also criminally intimidated him, hence the case came to be registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.07.2023 and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, hence he may be granted bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would contend that the petitioner is a rowdy element and having nine previous cases, out of which seven cases are under the provisions of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, one case under Section 279 of IPC and one case is under Section 188 of IPC, hence he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner. He would fairly concede that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the fact that no similar kind of previous cases are pending against the petitioner and considering the nature of offence and period of incarceration and all other aspects this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pattukottai and on further conditions that:
