2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is a tenant under the petitioner and paid an advance amount of Rs.1 Lakh for occupying the landed property of the petitioner. When the defacto complainant informed the petitioner that he is vacating the house and asked the advance amount back, the petitioner along with another accused, abused him with filthy language, threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent, he has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that a trouble has arisen between the landlord and the tenant over occupation of a property. No previous case has been registered against them.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and the fact that no previous case was registered against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the
