2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused forged Aadhaar Card and other records of the defacto complainant and opened the Bank Account in the name of the defacto complainant and her husband by impersonation from the District Central Co-operative Bank, Vannarpettai and availed loan of Rs.3,00,000/- and thereby, cheated the defacto complainant.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that investigation is still pending. He would submit that the first accused appeared before the respondent police. At that time, he made statement that he will settle the issue.

5.Considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with stringent conditions. However, considering the manner in which the petitioner is involved in the commission of offence, this Court is inclined to allow this petition on payment of cost.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed on condition that the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to the credit of Cr.No.130 of 2023 before the trial Court concerned, without prejudice to
