3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that investigation in this case is pending.

5. It appears that according to the defacto complainant on false promise of marriage, the petitioner having sexual intercourse with her for several times. When the defacto complainant demanded him to marry her, he refused. Both were subjected to medical examination. But, the result has not been received so far. Considering the seriousness of the allegation and considering the fact that the investigation is in initial stage, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. This petition deserves to be dismissed.

6. Accordingly, this criminal original petition stands dismissed.
