3.The learned Additional Government Pleader by referring the counter affidavit filed by the Deputy Tahsildar, Manapparai submits that the land in Survey No.135/2 is Natham Poramboke and it is not true that this petitioner is in possession of the land for more than 30 years. After the Assembly Election, the petitioner has put up a shed in the above land with the help of her husband and submitted a representation seeking patta in favour of her. Soon after the submission of this representation, she also filed this writ petition. The respondent has considered the representation of the petitioner and conducted an enquiry, which reveals that the petitioner's husband, namely one Selvaraj obtained a patta in Survey No. 135/2, which was subsequently sub divided as Survey No.135/11 and the petitioner's family constructed a pucca house and now they are residing in it.

4.In view of the subsequent development that the patta has already been granted to the petitioner's husband, namely one Selvaraj,
