of the defacto complainant and other accused are said to have demanded additional dowry from the defacto complainant and also harassed her both mentally and cruelly. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and hence, prayed for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that it is a case of matrimonial dispute between the husband and wife and that the petition enquiry is pending.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it is a matrimonial dispute between the husband and wife and that petition enquiry is only pending, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Madurai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
