2. The case of the prosecution that the defacto complainant owned two Alexandrite stones worth about Rs.1,50,000/-. The defacto complainant approached the accused Nos. 1 and 2 to sell the stone. For that purpose the defacto complainant along with the accused Nos. 1 and 2 went to Coimbatore in a car. At that time another car came in front of the their car and some accused persons, attacked the defacto complainant with aruval and the accused No.1 and 2 and snatched the alexandrite stones from the defacto complainant. The defacto complainant sustained grievous injury in this incident and admitted in the hospital. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent, they have not committed any offence alleged by the prosecution. They have been wrongly implicated in this case.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that totally seven accused are there in this case. The petitioners were arrested and other accused persons are yet to be apprehended. The defacto complainant sustained grievous injury all over the body in that incident.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and considering the seriousness of the offences and the manner in which the offence was committed, these petitioners are not entitled for any discretionary relief from this Court. If the
