petitioners and defacto complainant. The petitioners alleged to have attacked the defacto complainant with Aruval and criminally intimidated him. In this incident, the defacto complainant sustained injury and admitted in the hospital. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioners are innocents, they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that trouble arose between the neighbours over a issue of grazing the cattle. No previous case has been registered against the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also the fact that this case has been registered over a simple dispute between the neighbours, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambasamudram, Tirunelveli District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police
