(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.298 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 03.09.2023 at 03.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant was looking after the road laying work at Silvarpatti, the accused persons came there by riding motor cycles and abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and threatening him that unless he pays money for taking such contract work, they would do anything to him. Further the first accused said to have slapped the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that the injured in this case has been discharged from the hospital. There is no previous case pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the nature of offence, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance,
