transaction took place between the defacto complainant and one Sakthivel, who is stated to be one of the political functionary. In the above said transaction, this petitioner is not involved at all. According to him, the above said Sakthivel has not issued blank cheque in favour of the defacto complainant for Rs.3,50,000/-.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the complaint has been given against this petitioner, stating that promising to secure the job, he received Rs.3,50,000/-. Thereafter, failed to return the same to the defacto complainant and not secured the job also.

4. Considering the grievous nature of allegations made against the petitioner, unless this petitioner is subjected to interrogation, truth will not come. For the same reason also, the learned Principal District Judge, Pudukkottai dismissed the earlier anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner on 01.09.2023.
