2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of the injured. On 20.08.2023 at about 10.00 p.m. while the defacto complainant and her husband going to puberty ceremony of daughter of one Karthigai Kani, the accused persons prevented them to enter into their street and when the same was questioned by husband of the defacto complainant Sudalai @ Ajay, the accused persons abused them. At that time, the first accused went to his house, took an aruval, attacked the husband of the defacto complainant and other accused accused attacked him using bricks. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. There is no specific overt act attributed against this petitioner. The case in Crime No.572 of 2023 has been registered against the complainant's parties and in order to wreck vengeance over the same, the counter FIR has been registered against the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioner. Further, there is no damage caused to the vehicle in this case, but the counter parties suffered damages. It is a case and counter case and in both the cases, three persons were injured and they admitted in the hospital and later discharged. He would further submit that because of the above said issue, police picketing is arranged in that area.

5.Perusal of record shows that it is a case and counter case. Both the parties involved in causing damage to the vehicle and indulging in assault with each other on the eve of puberty ceremony arranged in that Village. It appears that the defacto complainant's parties belongs to other community and they have been invited to the puberty function, but the same was objected by the counter parties, over which, the above said trouble arose between the parties.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, it is a case and counter case, injured have been discharged from the hospital in both the cases, since it is a Village issue, further escalation must be averted or avoided and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.V, Tirunelveli, and on further condition that the petitioner shall stay at Tiruchirappalli and shall report before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruchirappalli daily at 10.30 a.m. until further
