2. The petitioner is a lessee under the 5th respondent temple. The 5th respondent has increased the rent to the lessees which is put to challenge before the appropriate authorities and the same was dismissed. Now, the petitioners had filed revision petition before the 1st respondent Government and the same is pending.

3. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to go into the merits of the case. The 1st respondent is directed to consider the claim of the petitioner and pass appropriate orders. However, the petitioner is directed to deposit 25% of the arrears demand to the 5th respondent and on such deposit, the respondents shall not evict the petitioner from the said premises. Further the petitioner is directed to pay the undisputed amount regularly without any default. As far as the increased rent is concerned, the petitioner shall pay 25% of the rent regularly. The respondents shall consider and pass orders within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

4. With the above said observation, the writ petition is allowed.
