The petitioners/Accused No.1 to 3, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.114 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity over the pathway dispute between the parties, on 07.09.2023, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and his family members, made assault upon them and also criminally intimidated them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that there is a pathway dispute between the parties. The injured in this case has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence, the overt act attributed against the petitioners and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the
