respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.1307 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, the petitioners pushed down the defacto complainant's father and he sustained injuries. They also threatened them with knife. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that there is a land dispute between the parties. The injured person has been discharged from the hospital. The petitioners are having no previous cases against them.

5. Considering the nature of offence, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.V, Madurai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two
