2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused said to have swindled a sum of Rs.28,60,195/- under Prime Minister Housing Scheme and MGNREG Scheme respectively and caused loss to Government Exchequer. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his names has been falsely implicated in this case, hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner and other accused prepared forged document for cheating, committed forgery in the office records and he would further submit that huge amount of Rs.28,60,195/- is involved in this case and the investigation of the case is pending and hence strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
