The third party to a suit had filed an application in a pending first appeal seeking to implead themselves on the ground that they have purchased the property from the defendants 1 and 2 pending suit for declaration of title and permanent injunction. The 1st appellate Court had rightly dismissed the said application on the ground that the proposed parties are pendente lite purchasers and they have no right to get themselves impleaded in the suit. According to the learned counsel appearing for the caveator, first appeal itself has been disposed of on 01.12.2022.

2. In view of the above said facts, nothing requires to be adjudicated in this revision petition Hence, this Civil Revision Petition stands dismissed. However, the proposed parties are at liberty to file second appeal with the leave of the Court, if they are so advised. No costs. Consequently, connected Civil Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
