ORDER

Heard both sides.

2.It is not in dispute that there is a graveyard in the petition-mentioned land. The grievance of the petitioner is that proper access facility is not there. It is the duty of the official respondents to ensure that the notified graveyard is having proper access. As and when, any death occurs in the village, there shall not be any restriction in taking the dead bodies to the notified graveyard/cremation ground. It is the duty of the official respondents to ensure the same.

3. With this direction to the official respondents, this writ petition is disposed.
