demanding money from the de-facto complainant. When it was refused by the de-facto complainant, the accused persons have abused him in filthy language and attacked him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that the petitioner and other accused have trespassed into a TASMAC shop and threatened the de-facto complainant with dire consequences. He also opposed grant anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is not yet completed.

5. Considering the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) and also considering the nature of offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory to the petitioner. Hence, this petition is dismissed.
