ORDER

The Civil Revision Petition has been filed seeking a direction to dispose of the proceedings in R.C.O.P.No.2 of 2019, pending on the file of the learned Principal District Munsif, Kovilpatti, Thoothukudi, within a specified time fixed by this Court.

C.R.P.(MD)No.2626 of 2023

2. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioners. Since the revision petition is filed for early disposal of the case, the issuance of notice to the respondents is not necessary.

3. The petitioner has filed the petition in R.C.O.P.No.2 of 2019 seeking order of eviction against the respondents/tenants directing them to deliver the vacant possession of the scheduled mentioned property to the petitioner.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner would submit that the respondents are tenants, they have not properly paid the rent during the pendency of RCOP and purposely escaped from paying necessary rent and that therefore, the trial has to be expedited.

5. The fact remains that the petition was filed in the year 2019. The High Court has already issued circulars to the District Judiciary, directing the Courts to give priority for the cases relating to Senior Citizens, HIV affected persons, Defence Personnel, Women and Children, more than 5 year old cases etc., It is to be noted that the revision petitioners, without approaching the trial Court, have directly come forward with the present Revision Petition before this Court, seeking early disposal. In the absence of total pendency particulars and the work burden of that particular Court, this Court is not inclined to give any direction to dispose of the case within a specified period of time.

6. However, the trial Court is required to give priority to the cases, as per the Circulars of the High Court. The revision petitioner is at liberty to approach the trial Court and if such requisition for early disposal of the case is made, the learned trial Judge is required to consider the urgency for early trial, in the light of the circulars issued by this Court.

7. With the above observation and direction, the Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. No costs.
