The petitioners/ A1 to A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(I) of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.176 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, the accused persons have abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and also attacked the de-facto complainant, her sister and her sister's husband with wooden log and criminally intimidated them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and a false complaint has been given. He would also submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he would pray for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to family dispute, the accused persons have abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and also attacked the de-facto complainant and her sister and her sister's husband with wooden log and he would strongly oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Virudhunagar, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall appear before the Trial Court on issuance of summons.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
