For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.180 of 2023 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/ A1 to A5, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 354, 355 and 506(i) IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.180 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, the accused persons have abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and also attacked her and her husband with hands and wooden log and criminally intimidated them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocence and a false complaint has been given. He would also submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he would pray for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to money dispute, the accused persons have abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and also attacked her and her husband with hands and wooden log and criminally intimidated them. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from hospital and they are close relatives. He would strongly oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the parties are close relatives, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Virudhunagar District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
