2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and de-facto complainant are husband and wife and due to matrimonial dispute, the accused persons have harassed the de-facto complainant and abused and attacked her and criminally intimidated her. Hence, the case.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and a false complaint has been given. He would also submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution and he was falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he would pray for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to matrimonial dispute, the accused persons have harassed the de-facto complainant and abused and attacked her and criminally intimidated her. She would strongly oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the parties are close relatives and the dispute is purely a matrimonial
