2.The petition mentioned lands were acquired for road widening.

The subject matter of acquisition was a subject matter of a civil suit. The suit was referred to Lok Aadalt. An award came to be passed. The case of the petitioner is that since the terms of the Lak Aadalt have not been complied with, the compensation amount as determined by the second respondent should not be disbursed.

3.This Court will not be justified in entertaining such a prayer in the first instance. The petitioner has lodged objection before the second respondent. The second respondent has to take a call in the matter after putting the other interested persons on notice.
