2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's husband used to get money from her and spend it for purchasing liquor. Therefore, there was frequent quarrel between them. On the date of occurrence, the defacto complainant's husband demanded money and the same was refused, due to which, he abused her in filthy language and also assaulted her. When the petitioner, who is the son of the defacto complainant, came to know about the same, poured kerosene on the deceased and set fire, due to which, the husband of the defacto complainant died. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 07.08.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation completed and final report is ready.
