2.The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Therefore, he prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that investigation in this case pending. However she fairly concedes that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
