3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and a false case has been foisted against them. Therefore, he prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that petitioners along with other accused have illegally transported ten units of sand, hence he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Valliyoor, Tirunelveli District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
