r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.278 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that no one sustained injuries in the said occurrence. Therefore, he prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences hence objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that no one sustained injuries in the said occurrence.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no one sustained injuries in the said occurrence and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest
