learned Judicial Magistrate, Athoor, Dindigul. She has also preferred a complaint before the respondents. On that basis, the respondents 1 to 3 are harassing the petitioners on the basis of enquiry. Hence the first petitioner made representation before the respondent not to harass them. Since the same was not considered, the present petition came to be filed.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submitted that on the basis of the complaint given by the wife of the fourth respondent herein, enquiry is undertaken in C.S.R.No.739 of 2023. The matter is pending for enquiry.

4. It is seen that it is matrimonial dispute between the husband and wife. Let the enquiry be completed within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If any trouble arises during the course of enquiry, the petitioners are at liberty to work out remedy through appropriate proceedings. There is no question of harassment. The respondent has to send for conciliation parties to settle the issue. Thereafter, only depending on the result, the respondent can take further action.
