CRL OP(MD). No.18713 of 2023

(j) (ii), 5(1) and 6 of Protection of Child from Sexual offences Act, 2012 in Crime No.11 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some quarrel with her husband the mother of the victim living with the petitioner. Her child also living with her. When the victim returned from school the petitioner herein had penetrative sexual assault up with the child so many times and that the victim child became pregnant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he is in jail for the past 116 days and seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner had committed the offence of penetrative sexual assault upon the minor victim and she is aged about only 14 years and now, the victim girl has become pregnant. She would further submit that the investigation was completed and the charge sheet has been filed and she strongly objected for granting bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the serious nature of offence committed by the petitioner and that the petitioner is only aged about 14 years and that she has become pregnant, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
